Empowering the future of Tourism:

IIE Rosebank College graduates and students shine at Meetings Africa

IIE Rosebank College Career Services department in Braamfontein Campus partnered with Zimasa Travel and South African Tourism to send students to the prestigious Meetings Africa event. The event, held from February 27th to 29th, 2024, aimed to showcase exhibitors' offerings to international and local buyers, African associations, and corporate planners.

Five students from IIE Rosebank College, pursuing an IIE Diploma in Tourism Management, and two graduates with an IIE Higher Certificate in Travel, participated in the event. The collaboration bridging academia and industry provided real-world exposure, shaping future careers.

Empowered by Education:

Lerato Dlalisa's Rise as the Next Broadcasting Guru

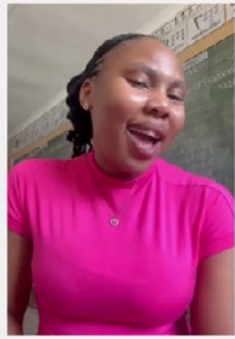

Lerato Nobuhle Dlalisa, an IIE graduate from IIE Rosebank College, has achieved success as a Multimedia Reporting Intern at the South African Broadcasting Corporation. She emphasizes the importance of approach, conduct, and preparation in her education.

Lerato is grateful for the Graduate Empowerment Programme on its support towards her career. Her success is attributed to her proactive approach to opportunities and resilience. She advises future students to not let setbacks define their path and to put themselves out there. Lerato's journey demonstrates the transformative power of education.

ALUMNI EVENTS

IIE Rosebank College Alumni Embrace Virtual Empowerment

In a recent online event titled “Navigating the Modern Job Market: Trends and Insights,” IIE Rosebank College alumni office hosted a successful online session aimed at empowering alumni in their career journeys. Held virtually on the 7th of March, the event attracted a diverse group of alumni eager to enhance their professional skills and gain insights into today’s job landscape. The session provided invaluable guidance on navigating the job market and crafting compelling resumes, all from the comfort of participants’ homes. The Career Service sManager Lilian Bususu led discussions on current job market dynamics, emerging trends, and the evolving demands of employers. IIE Rosebank College Alumni had the unique opportunity to gain real-time insights, equipping them with the knowledge needed to make informed career decisions. Despite the digital format, the event maintained its interactive nature, fostering connections among participants through networking opportunities. Feedback from attendees echoed the event’s success, with many expressing appreciations for the valuable information shared and a desire for future online gatherings. The positive response underscores the value of adapting to changing circumstances while empowering graduates in their professional journeys. The Career Services team at IIE Rosebank College is excited by the reception and is already planning future online events to meet alumni’s evolving needs. Stay tuned for updates on upcoming virtual sessions as we continue to support your journey to professional excellence.

Alumni event reviews

1. The event was good and relevant.
2. I loved it I want to know next time how to create appropriate LinkedIn profiles.
3. The event was informative and I’m looking forward to more.
4. IIE Rosebank College still takes care of their own even when they’ve graduated.
5. Facilitators went beyond and made sure we understand how the market works and how we should prepare ourselves for job interviews.

Elevating Success:

The Vital Contribution of IIE Rosebank College’s Career Center Beyond Recruitment at Discovery Health

In a step towards preparing graduates for the world of work the IIE Rosebank College Nelson Mandela Bay Campus recently hosted a successful Discovery Health Recruitment Day in February. The event aimed at empowering IIE graduates from IIE Rosebank College with work development and interview skills by letting them participate in the Discovery Recruitment Process. It was an innovative event which allowed IIE Rosebank College graduate to interact with Discovery Health recruiter and gain knowledge on the necessary skills needed to succeed in an interview.

The event’s impact went beyond the success of the four graduates, sparking increased interest among students. The Discovery Health Recruitment Day not only opened doors for career opportunities but also fostered collaboration between future professionals and industry leaders, emphasizing the essence of empowerment and collaboration.
